

One Book for Greater Hartford Kickoff and
Festival of African American Literature

Saturday, September 13
10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Hartford Public Library
500 Main Street

An All Day Literary Extravaganza

One Book Reading Resource Guides, bookmarks and book discussion calendar will be available.

10:00 – 10:30 a.m.	One Book for Greater Hartford Kickoff
11:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon	How To Lead a Book Discussion Workshop Jane Hoben
11:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon	Haiku poetry workshops Jon West-Bey
12:00 noon - 1:00 p.m.	Community Readings & Spoken Word Local authors
12:00 noon - 12:45 p.m.	Performance, Jewish and African American Liturgical Music Set to Jazz The Afro-Semitic Experience
1:00 - 2:15 p.m.	Author Reading & Book Signing Herb Boyd , award-winning writer
2:30 - 4:00 p.m.	Writing Workshop, Getting to the Page Gina Greenlee , opinion columnist for the Hartford Courant and essayist for the New York Times
3:00 - 4:00 p.m.	One Book for Greater Hartford Book Discussion The Color of Water by James McBride
4:00 - 5:00 p.m.	Community Readings & Spoken Word Local authors

 Programs are subject to change*